Name:_____ Class:_____ Date:_____

WH&G Unit 5 Test: East Asia, World War I, and Nationalism Around the World

Indicate the answer choice that best completes the statement or answers the question.

1. How did World War I end for Russia?
   a. Russia was victorious over the Central Powers on the eastern front
   b. Russia signed a separate peace and gave up much of its territory in Eastern Europe
   c. Russia switched sides and joined the Central Powers
   d. Russian territory was invaded by the Central Powers and they lost the war 2.

> "In two or three years the military superiority of our enemies would…be so great that I do not know how we could overcome them. Today we would still be a match for them."
>
> -- German general in July 1914

   The above quote provides evidence for the role played by _____ in bringing about the beginning of World War I.
   a. militarism
   b. alliances
   c. nationalism
   d. imperialism

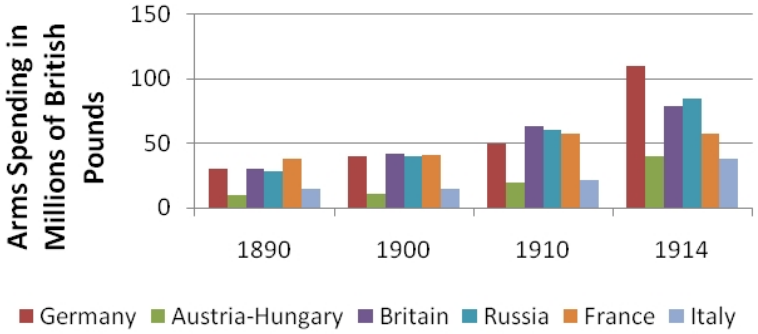

3. Which of the following statements best describes the role of women during World War I?
   a. Their roles during wartime remained the same as their roles during peacetime.
   b. They took over many men's jobs and kept the economies of their nations going.
   c. They did not make significant contributions to the war effort.
   d. They fought alongside men on the front lines.

4. The Meiji Restoration of 1868 in Japan
   a. eliminated most western influence and attempted to return Japan to a Confucian-style government.
   b. reestablished a military alliance with both China and Korea to oppose western domination.
   c. permitted western powers to set up spheres of influence in Japan and dominate trade.
   d. ushered in rapid adoption of western industrial and governmental systems while promoting Japanese nationalism.

5. Which Asian nation most readily adopted western-style industrialization, culture, and imperial ambitions in the late 19th and early 20th centuries?
   a. China
   b. Korea
   c. Vietnam
   d. Japan

Name:_____ Class:_____ Date:_____

WH&G Unit 5 Test: East Asia, World War I, and Nationalism Around the World

6. The image above provides evidence of an increase in _____ prior to the onset of World War I.
   a. imperialism
   b. militarism
   c. nationalism
   d. alliances

7. The unequal treaties forced upon China and Japan by western powers in the late 19th century usually included provisions for extraterritoriality, which
   a. permitted Asian citizens to travel freely to the western nations to learn about industrialization and western governments.
   b. permitted foreign citizens to live in an Asian country under their own western laws and judicial systems rather than those of the host country.
   c. required the Asian countries to eliminate all import tariffs on western goods.
   d. forced the Asian countries to pay reparations to the western countries for all losses sustained in war.

8. Several Western Nations, including the United States, sent military aid to Russia during the Russian Civil War to assist
   a. the Red Army.
   b. the White Army.
   c. Czar Nicholas II.
   d. the Communist Party.

9. Which of the following provides the best description of the so-called "no-man's land?"
   a. A village nearby a recent battle that people could return to because there were no enemy soldiers there
   b. The term used to describe the part of the battlefield that no one was allowed to fire on, since it was used for religious services
   c. A strip of territory that separated enemy trenches, which soldiers had difficulty safely crossing
   d. The part of the trenches that soldiers avoided because it was used as a dumping ground for bodily waste

WH&G Unit 5 Test: East Asia, World War I, and Nationalism Around the World

10. Of all the provisions of the Treaty of Versailles, the ones that created the most difficulties for Germany's post-war recovery were
    a. the serve restrictions placed on the size of Germany military forces.
    b. the losses of colonies in Africa and the South Pacific.
    c. the banishment of the Kaiser and establishment of the Weimar Republic.
    d. the acceptance of guilt for the war and payment of reparations to the victors.

11. Marxist Revolutionaries in Russia hoped to
    a. eliminate the League of Nations.
    b. complete the trans-Siberian railroad.
    c. create a constitutional monarchy.
    d. overthrow the czar.

12. The fact that Allies such as Japan used their naval strength to seize German colonies around the world is good evidence that _____ contributed to the continuation of World War I.
    a. absolutism
    b. nationalism
    c. imperialism
    d. scientific racism

13. The mandates placed on the Central Powers by the treaties ending World War I led to the creation of
    a. a stronger Ottoman Empire.
    b. the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO).
    c. new, independent nations carved from fallen empires.
    d. the Austro-Hungarian Empire.

14. What was the “war guilt” clause in the Treaty of Versailles?
    a. It placed the sole responsibility of the war on Belgium
    b. It placed sole responsibility of the war on France
    c. It placed the sole responsibility of the war on Russia
    d. It placed the sole responsibility of the war on Germany

15. The idea of national self-determination came from which of the following?
    a. The Enlightenment
    b. Teddy Roosevelt's "Big Stick Diplomacy"
    c. The Schlieffen Plan
    d. Woodrow Wilson's Fourteen Points

16. Which of the following were part of the Western Front in World War I?
    a. The Battles of Tannenberg, Masurian Lake, and the Kosovo Offensive
    b. The Dardanelles Campaign, Gallipoli, and the Brusilov Offensive
    c. The Battles of the Marne, Verdun, and the Somme
    d. The Mesopotamia Campaign, the Kerensky Offensive, and the Siege of Kut

17. Which segment of the Chinese population was most supportive of Sun-yat Sen and the Revive China Society?
    a. Urban middle-class
    b. Military leaders
    c. Rural peasants
    d. Confucian scholars

18. The country that dropped out of the war early due to revolution and social chaos was
    a. Russia
    b. France
    c. Germany
    d. Austria-Hungary

19. Why were the Central Powers at a geographic disadvantage in World War I?
    a. Germany and Austria-Hungary had enemy countries on both their Eastern and Western borders.
    b. The lower altitude in Germany and Austria-Hungary made it harder for their soldiers to adapt to fighting in France.
    c. A large sea between Germany and France prevented easy access to enemy territories.
    d. Germany and Austria-Hungary were too far away from the center of the war to have an impact in most key battles.

20. Amid its declining power in the 1870s, China's Qing Dynasty embraced policies that adopted western technology while retaining Confucian values and institutions. What is this called?
    a. Spheres of Influence
    b. Meiji Restoration
    c. Self-strengthening
    d. Open Door Policy

21. Consider the following passage:

"BY-LAWS OF THE ORGANIZATION UNION OR DEATH

Article 1. This organization is created for the purpose of realizing the...union of all Serbs. Membership is open to every Serb, without distinction of sex, religion, or place of birth, and to all those who are sincerely devoted to this cause.

Article 2. This organization prefers terrorist action to intellectual propaganda, and for this reason it must remain absolutely secret."

The views expressed in this document are an example of an extreme version of which ideology?

a. Imperialism
b. Nationalism
c. Liberalism
d. Socialism

22. Which of these was NOT among the motivations of the "Big Three" at the Paris Peace Conference of 1919?
    a. Italy's request for Austrian territories seized in fighting in the Alps
    b. France's desires for security from any future military aggression by Germany
    c. The United State's hopes for stateless peoples in Europe and the Middle East to achieve nationhood
    d. Great Britain's demands to be compensated for war losses by Germany

23. Following the Revolution of 1911, the first leader of the new Chinese Republic was
    a. Yuan Shigai, a prominent military leader
    b. Henry Pu-yi, the infant heir to the Qing Dynasty
    c. Sun-yat Sen, a westernized reformer
    d. Hong Xiuquan, a religious leader and revolutionary

24. The Tai Ping Rebellion of 1850-64 was one of the bloodiest civil wars in world history. Which of these best describes the rebellion?
    a. A revolutionary prophet utilized a form of Christian extremism in an attempt to overthrow the Qing Dynasty in China.
    b. A group of reform-minded daimyo overthrew the shogun and established a new emperor in Japan.
    c. The Korean kings of Silla and Goguryeo waged a war to control the entire Korean Peninsula.
    d. The Society of the Righteous and Harmonious Fists, convinced that they were impervious to bullets, killed westerners in China.

Name:_____ Class:_____ Date:_____

WH&G Unit 5 Test: East Asia, World War I, and Nationalism Around the World

25.

The image above best illustrates which of the following key causes of WWI?

a. the rise of militarism

b. the expansion of imperialism

c. the proliferation of alliances

d. the growth of nationalism

26. Why did the Germans resort to unrestricted submarine warfare around the British Isles?

a. It was the only way to defeat the Russians.

b. They wanted to starve the British into submission.

c. Germany needed food intended for the Brits.

d. Submarines were safer than ships.

27. Around 9 million young men under the age of 30 died during WWI and as a result this term is used to describe both the deceased and the survivors.

a. 'the lost generation'

b. 'the crazy generation'

c. 'the war generation'

d. 'the sad generation'

28. Which term was used to describe the terrible psychological damage suffered by soldiers in WWI?

a. Trench Confinement

b. Mania

c. Stir Craziness

d. Shell Shock

29. In order to balance trade following failed negotiations, what did Great Britain begin exporting to China that resulted in an 1839-42 war?
    a. Sugar
    b. Textiles
    c. Opium
    d. Tea

30.

> "Attempting to exploit a loophole in international laws against the uses of gas in warfare, some German officials noted that only gas projectiles appeared to be specifically banned, and that no prohibition could be found against simply releasing deadly chemical weapons and allowing the wind to carry it to the enemy."
>
> -- World War I historian

    The above quote provides evidence of
    a. the limits of political compromise during World War I.
    b. the fact that fighting was less deadly during World War I.
    c. the strengths of international law during World War I.
    d. the reality that French soldiers fought with morals during World War I.

31. The Turkish government claimed their Armenian subjects had sided with which country in WWI?
    a. Great Britain
    b. France
    c. Belgium
    d. Russia

32. In what part of the Ottoman Empire did the majority of the Armenian population live at the start of WWI?
    a. European Turkey
    b. Constantinople
    c. Eastern Anatolia
    d. Spread evenly across the Ottoman Empire

33. The primary goal of the League of Nations was to
    a. keep peace among the nations of the world.
    b. regulate trade and commerce among world powers.
    c. establish a unified military force in Europe.
    d. establish and enforce Wilson's Fourteen Points.

34. How did the Zimmermann Note affect American neutrality?
    a. It made American leaders more resolved to safeguard their neutral rights.
    b. It led the United States to attack Mexico.
    c. It led the Allies to beg the United States to support their war effort.
    d. It led to strong public support for U.S. entry into the war.

35. How did trench warfare make World War I unique compared to previous conflicts?
    a. It improved the health of soldiers, since they were partially underground all day.
    b. It turned the conflict into a war of attrition, in which neither side could gain ground.
    c. It made the pace of the war much more rapid than earlier, pre-industrial conflicts.
    d. It prevented the war from causing as much destruction to the land.

36. Which term describes the use of a nation's entire resources to fight a war?
    a. Armistice
    b. Total War
    c. Conscription
    d. Propaganda

37. World War I resulted in the establishment of Iraq, Syria, Transjordan, and Palestine following the breakup of which empire?
    a. German Empire
    b. Russian Empire
    c. Ottoman Empire
    d. Austro-Hungarian Empire

38. The Bolsheviks renamed their party the Communist Party because they were influenced by the writings of
    a. Karl Marx.
    b. Woodrow Wilson.
    c. Teddy Roosevelt.
    d. Montesquieu.

39. Although Austria-Hungary had military superiority, they were reluctant to immediately invade Serbia when provoked. Which European power, which shared a Slavic language and Orthodox Christian religion with Serbia, was willing to back up the Serbians in the event of an invasion?
    a. Romania
    b. Russia
    c. France
    d. Germany

Name:_____ Class:_____ Date:_____

WH&G Unit 5 Test: East Asia, World War I, and Nationalism Around the World 40.

The map shown above helps explain why _____ was a key component of the outbreak of World War I.

a. colonialism

b. nationalism

c. militarism

d. alliances

Name:_____ Class:_____ Date:_____

WH&G Unit 5 Test: East Asia, World War I, and Nationalism Around the World

Answer Key

1. b
2. a
3. b
4. d
5. d
6. b
7. b
8. b
9. c
10. d
11. d
12. c
13. c
14. d
15. d
16. c
17. a
18. a
19. a
20. c
21. b
22. a
23. a
24. a
25. c
26. b

WH&G Unit 5 Test: East Asia, World War I, and Nationalism Around the World

27. a

28. d

29. c

30. a

31. d

32. c

33. a

34. d

35. b

36. b

37. c

38. a

39. b

40. b