Name:_____ Class:_____ Date:_____

WH&G Unit 3 Test: The Age of Revolutions

Indicate the answer choice that best completes the statement or answers the question.

1. The English Bill of Rights in 1689
   a. provided that the monarch could be a Roman Catholic if he or she converted.
   b. guaranteed that the monarch would always have to share power with Parliament.
   c. was granted by the king because he had lost his army in the Glorious Revolution.
   d. that England would eventually become a republic and have no king or queen.

2. The main difference between the political thought of Thomas Hobbes and John Locke was that a. Hobbes thought a republic was the best government whereas Locke favored absolute monarchy.
   b. Hobbes believed God granted political wisdom whereas Locke was an atheist.
   c. Hobbes believed that people formed a social contract whereas Locke did not.
   d. Hobbes admired absolute rulers whereas Locke thought they abused natural rights.

3. Montesquieu's most lasting contribution to political thought was that
   a. nations needed a written constitution to protect the people from changes by judges.
   b. a government should be tailored to the size and climate of a country.
   c. there is one best form of government—representative democracy.
   d. separation of powers into branches with checks and balances was best for freedom.

4. What was the social and political situation in France before the French Revolution?
   a. The king and the people conspired together to limit the power of the aristocracy.
   b. The king, the aristocracy, and the people of France competed constantly for power.
   c. The French people and their leaders tried to rid France of the Roman Catholic Church.
   d. The king, the aristocracy, and the church neglected the needs of the French people.

5. The main point of the Magna Carta, signed by King John of England in 1215, was that
   a. the king granted a charter to each nobleman, making each one his vassal.
   b. the king of England would henceforth be a limited monarch, not an absolute one.
   c. in exchange for land, the nobles agreed to field armies if the king went to war.
   d. the king could not charge any new taxes to support the next war with France.

6. European absolutist rulers believe that they get their authority from and are accountable to
   a. the people.
   b. God.
   c. the aristocracy.
   d. parliament.

WH&G Unit 3 Test: The Age of Revolutions

7. In the showdown for who would be in control of France as the revolution started, a. the part of the government representing the people formed a National Assembly.
   b. the Roman Catholic Church negotiated peace between the people and the king.
   c. the king tried to distract rebels by declaring another war against England.
   d. the king kept the loyalty of the army, which put down revolts by firing into the mobs.

8. Which statement most accurately interprets this portrayal of the First, Second, and Third Estates of 18th century France?

   a. The middle class is the force that holds society together.
   b. The privileged fear the anger of the underprivileged.
   c. The monarchy has allied itself to the will of the people.
   d. The nobility are the force that holds society together.

9. Which event traditionally is viewed as marking the start of the French Revolution?
   a. The raiding of noble estates in the rural areas of France during The Great Fear
   b. The storming of the Bastille, an old fortress used as a prison and armory
   c. The writing of the Declaration of the Rights of Man and the French Constitution
   d. The beheading of the king and queen by a mob

10. John Locke and Jacques Rousseau would be most likely to support
    a. A return to feudalism in Europe
    b. A society ruled by the Catholic Church
    c. A society in which people chose the ruler
    d. A government by divine right monarchy

WH&G Unit 3 Test: The Age of Revolutions

11. Consider the following passage:

    "The Desires, and other Passions of man, are in themselves no Sin. No more are the Actions, that proceed from those Passions, till they know a Law that forbids them: which till Lawes be made they cannot know: nor can any Law be made, till they have agreed upon the Person that shall make it." –Thomas Hobbes, Leviathan (1651)

    Based on this passage and your knowledge of political philosophy, who does Hobbes believe should make laws?
    a. An elected body of legislators
    b. An absolute ruler agreed upon by men
    c. God through religious tradition
    d. A monarch with power limited by a legislature

12. What was the long-term result of the English Civil War?
    a. To avoid a future war, Parliament granted more power to the monarchy.
    b. Oliver Cromwell set up a commonwealth and made England a direct democracy.
    c. The government of the victorious Parliament crumbled and England got another king.
    d. England lost the ability to control its colonies and gave up on having an empire.

13. Who ruled England after the execution of Charles I?
    a. Parliament
    b. The Cavaliers
    c. Oliver Cromwell
    d. James I

14. John Locke believed that the government had an obligation to the people it governed to protect their natural rights. If the government failed to do this, then the people had the right to
    a. do nothing.
    b. move to another country.
    c. overthrow the government.
    d. refuse to vote.

15. Peter the Great's most important accomplishment as Czar of Russia was
    a. opening his country to Western European culture, politics, and trade.
    b. establishing a communist government to replace the old monarchy.
    c. compromising with the boyar class to establish a constitutional monarchy.
    d. driving the Ottoman Empire's forces out of the Crimean Peninsula.

WH&G Unit 3 Test: The Age of Revolutions

16. Which 18th century philosophe and author of The Social Contract (1762) believed in minimal government controls on people's behavior and had faith in the "general will" of the community as a whole to take precedence over individual interests?
    a. Thomas Hobbes
    b. Baron de Montesquieu
    c. Jean-Jacques Rousseau
    d. John Locke

17. A comprehensive system of laws that eliminated many injustices and gave France a uniform set of laws
    a. Napoleonic Code
    b. Old Regime
    c. Great Fear
    d. Declaration of the Rights of Man

18. The English Civil War could also be called the Puritan Revolution because
    a. Puritans fled to colonial America and started the American Revolution.
    b. English Puritans asked William of Orange, who was also a Puritan, to invade England.
    c. a Puritan became king and banned the Roman Catholic Church from England.
    d. Puritans controlled Parliament and used their power to defy King Charles I.

WH&G Unit 3 Test: The Age of Revolutions

19. Study the political cartoon and select the best answer to describe the message the cartoonist is trying to relate to the reader.

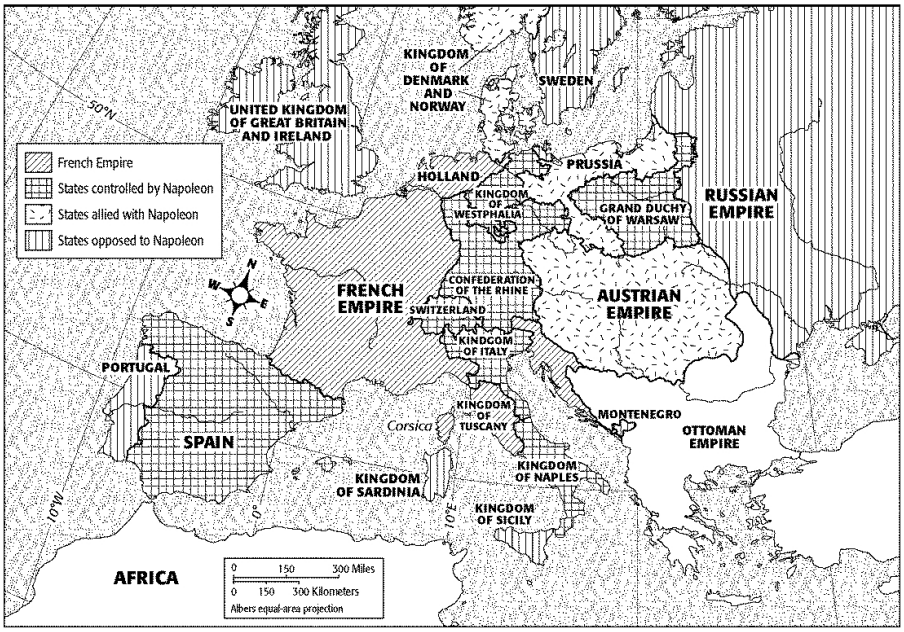

a. The First and Second Estates need the help of the Third Estate
b. The Third Estate carries the burden of the country
c. The Third Estate is strong
d. People in France like to play strange games

Name:_____ Class:_____ Date:_____

WH&G Unit 3 Test: The Age of Revolutions

Napoleon's Empire, 1812

20. Using the map titled "Napoleon's Empire, 1812," which states were opposed to Napoleon in 1812?
    a. Africa and the Ottoman Empire
    b. Portugal, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Kingdom of Sardinia, Kingdom of Sicily, Montenegro, Russian Empire and Sweden
    c. Grand Duchy of Warsaw, Confederation of the Rhine, Kingdoms of Denmark and Norway
    d. All states were either controlled or allied with Napoleon.

21. What was one effect of the French Revolution?
    a. Militarism was discouraged.
    b. Differences between ethnic groups were eliminated.
    c. Nationalistic feelings were stimulated.
    d. Communism became popular.

22. Promotion within Napoleon's government and military was based on which of the following?
    a. Rank
    b. Birth
    c. Ability
    d. Bribery

WH&G Unit 3 Test: The Age of Revolutions

23. Jean-Baptist Colbert, finance minister to Louis XIV, sought to increase France's wealth by decreasing imports, subsidizing key industries, and building up France's trade with its colonies. What economic philosophy did Colbert follow?
    a. Socialism
    b. Keynesianism
    c. Monetarism
    d. Mercantilism

24. Which of the following was true of the French First Estate?
    a. The First Estate usually voted together with the Third Estate.
    b. The First Estate was subject to the corvee system of forced labor.
    c. The First Estate paid no taxes.
    d. The First Estate included wealthy bourgeoisie.

25. After the King locked them out of the meeting place, the Third Estate swore the _____, stating they would NOT leave until they had written a constitution for France.
    a. Versailles Oath
    b. Tennis Court Oath
    c. Bastille Oath
    d. None of the above

26. Louis XIV of France ruled by spectacle and centralized power at his palace of
    a. Rouen.
    b. Versailles.
    c. St. Petersburg.
    d. Paris.

27. The meeting that set policies to promote security and stability in Europe after Napoleon's defeat
    a. Napoleonic Code
    b. Continental System
    c. Congress of Vienna
    d. Waterloo

WH&G Unit 3 Test: The Age of Revolutions

28. Base your answer to question the on the following picture and on your knowledge of world history.

The dotted line represents the boundary of the

a. The coast line of Europe

b. Locations of dangerous reefs

c. The Continental System

d. Napoleonic Empire

29. Consider the following passage:

"Man being born, as has been proved, with a title to perfect freedom, and uncontrolled enjoyment of all the rights and privileges of the law of nature, equally with any other man, or number of men in the world, hath by nature a power, not only to preserve his property, that is, his life, liberty, and estate, against the injuries and attempts of other men; but to judge of and punch the breaches of that law in others" –Second Treatise of Government (1689)

Which 17$^{th}$ century philosopher, a strong proponent of limited monarchy, wrote these words that inspired the writers of the American Declaration of Independence?

a. Thomas Hobbes

b. Jean-Jacques Rousseau

c. John Locke

d. Baron de Montesquieu

WH&G Unit 3 Test: The Age of Revolutions

30. The Napoleonic Era in French history begins with
    a. the birth of Napoleon.
    b. the crowning of Napoleon as Emperor.
    c. Napoleon's time in the army.
    d. the coup d'état that removed the Directory from France.

31. During the English Civil War, the Parliament succeeded mainly because
    a. Oliver Cromwell fought for Parliament and was the best general of the war.
    b. the noble classes supported them against the power of the king.
    c. Parliament had control of all of England's money.
    d. King Charles I was killed in battle and they were the only government left.

32. Which English legal document had the most direct influence on the American Constitution?
    a. The Treaty of Versailles
    b. The Petition of Right
    c. The English Bill of Rights
    d. The Magna Carta

33. Part of the legacy of the French Revolution is that
    a. citizens' rights were never again restricted in Europe.
    b. it has discouraged revolutions worldwide for the last 200 years.
    c. it has inspired people to fight for their rights in other parts of the world.
    d. all European monarchies became democracies.

34. The Enlightenment philosophers believed that the power of the government should be derived from
    a. the middle class.
    b. a strong military.
    c. the people.
    d. divine right rulers.

35. What is one way that the French Declaration of the Rights of Man and the Citizen was similar to the American Declaration of Independence?
    a. It established a two-house legislature.
    b. It affirmed that the function of government was to protect individual rights.
    c. It abolished monarchy and set up a republic.
    d. It was based on the principle that all people had equal political rights.

WH&G Unit 3 Test: The Age of Revolutions

36. He set out to build a French "republic of virtue;" his rule became known as the Reign of Terror (1793-1794)
    a. Klemens von Metternich
    b. Jacobin
    c. Napoleon Bonaparte
    d. Maximilian Robespierre

37. Which of the following is a reason why the French Revolution began?
    a. The King asked for a divorce from his wife for failure to produce an heir, leading to a religious and political controversy.
    b. The monarchy was unable to tax the wealthy landowning portion of society, causing a financial crisis that led to popular unrest.
    c. The rival English sent assassins to kill the French king, sparking a moment of chaos for the people.
    d. The poor members of the Third Estate joined together with the clergy from the First Estate, causing the king to resign.

38. What did the American and French Revolution have in common?
    a. Both revolutions supported the authority of the monarch.
    b. Both the colonies and 3rd estate used strong navies to overthrow the government.
    c. Both revolutions were sparked by conflict over taxation.
    d. Both revolutions failed and the monarchs maintained authority.

39. Why did English Parliament force Charles I to sign the Petition of Right?
    a. It prevented the king from raising taxes without approval of Parliament and stated that he could not jail anyone without legal justification
    b. Parliament wanted to elect a new king from their own ranks.
    c. It was an admission of defeat from Parliament who went on to lose the English Civil War d. The document allowed Charles I to raise taxes without the consent on the Parliament

40. Which of the following dominated the Congress of Vienna?
    a. Charles X
    b. Lord Nelson
    c. Louis-Philippe
    d. Klemens von Metternich

Name:_____ Class:_____ Date:_____

WH&G Unit 3 Test: The Age of Revolutions

Answer Key

1. b
2. d
3. d
4. d
5. b
6. b
7. a
8. b
9. b
10. c
11. b
12. c
13. c
14. c
15. a
16. c
17. a
18. d
19. b
20. b
21. c
22. c
23. d
24. c
25. b
26. b

WH&G Unit 3 Test: The Age of Revolutions

27. c

28. c

29. c

30. d

31. a

32. c

33. c

34. c

35. b

36. d

37. b

38. c

39. a

40. d