Name:_____ Class:_____ Date:_____

WH&G Unit 3 Test: Age of Revolutions

Indicate the answer choice that best completes the statement or answers the question.

1. John Locke and Jacques Rousseau would be most likely to support
   a. A government by divine right monarchy
   b. A society ruled by the Catholic Church
   c. A return to feudalism in Europe
   d. A society in which people chose the ruler

2. When the Ottomans gained control of the trade crossroads of the Byzantine capital city, Europeans
   a. established their own trade routes through the city.
   b. looked to the seas for new trade routes.
   c. attacked the city.
   d. stopped attempts to trade with the East.

3. Which of the following made it possible for the arts to flourish during the Ming and early Qing dynasties?
   a. lack of contact with Europeans
   b. corruption
   c. Christian missionaries
   d. economic expansion

> I hold the sun to be situated motionless in the center of the revolution of the celestial orbs while the earth… revolves about the sun…. [T]hese men have resolved to fabricate a shield for their fallacies out of … the authority of the Bible. These they apply with little judgment to the refutation of arguments that they do not understand and have not even listened to.
>
> —Galileo Galilei, scientist and mathematician, 1615

4.  To whom does Galileo refer in this passage?
   a. blacksmiths
   b. government leaders in Italy
   c. university professors
   d. leaders of the Catholic church

5. What was the long-term result of the English Civil War?
   a. England lost the ability to control its colonies and gave up on having an empire.
   b. To avoid a future war, Parliament granted more power to the monarchy.
   c. Oliver Cromwell set up a republic and made England a democracy to this day.
   d. The government of the victorious Parliament crumbled and England got another king.

WH&G Unit 3 Test: Age of Revolutions

6. If the Spanish armada had not been defeated,
   a. Europe might have been ruled by the Spanish.
   b. the balance of power may have shifted to Germany.
   c. Philip II might have been able to sail to France.
   d. England might have lost its power as a Protestant country.

7. Francis Bacon's scientific method used
   a. deductive reasoning without relying on sensory observations.
   b. the wisdom of ancient scientists.
   c. inductive reasoning to find specific truth from sensory observations.
   d. assumptions that were not observed.

8. The meeting that set policies to promote security and stability in Europe after Napoleon's defeat
   a. Waterloo
   b. Napoleonic Code
   c. Continental System
   d. Congress of Vienna

9. Which event traditionally is viewed as marking the start of the French Revolution?
   a. The storming of the Bastille, an old fortress used as a prison and armory
   b. The raiding of noble estates in the rural areas of France during The Great Fear
   c. The beheading of the king and queen by a mob
   d. The writing of the Declaration of the Rights of Man and the French Constitution

10. The English Civil War could also be called the Puritan Revolution because
    a. Puritans controlled Parliament and used their power to defy King Charles I.
    b. a Puritan became king and banned the Roman Catholic Church from England.
    c. Puritans fled to colonial America and started the American Revolution.
    d. English Puritans asked William of Orange, who was also a Puritan, to invade England.

11. Who led the Ming dynasty's naval voyages of exploration?
    a. Kee Yo Zui
    b. Zheng He
    c. Xiao He
    d. Hong Wu

WH&G Unit 3 Test: Age of Revolutions

12. Montesquieu's most lasting contribution to political thought was that
    a. there is one best form of government—representative democracy.
    b. a government should be tailored to the size and climate of a country.
    c. nations needed a written constitution to protect the people from changes by judges.
    d. separation of powers into branches with checks and balances was best for freedom.

13. The significance of Sir Isaac Newton's three Laws of Motion is that they
    a. refute Galileo's findings on gravity's effects on earthly bodies.
    b. define a universal law of gravitation that applies to the entire universe.
    c. show that objects on Earth follow different laws than those in space.
    d. prove that the planets travel in circular orbits around the sun.

14. European absolutist rulers believe that they get their authority from and are accountable to
    a. the people.
    b. God.
    c. parliament.
    d. the aristocracy.

15. Johannes Kepler discovered that the solar system was
    a. heliocentric with planets in elliptical orbits
    b. heliocentric with planets in circular orbits
    c. geocentric with planets and moons in irregular orbits
    d. geocentric with fixed stars

16. What was the social and political situation in France before the French Revolution?
    a. The French people and their leaders tried to rid France of the Roman Catholic Church.
    b. The king, the aristocracy, and the people of France competed constantly for power.
    c. The king and the people conspired together to limit the power of the aristocracy.
    d. The king, the aristocracy, and the church neglected the needs of the French people.

17. Louis XIV of France ruled by spectacle and centralized power at his palace of
    a. Rouen.
    b. Paris.
    c. Versailles.
    d. St. Petersburg.

18. During the English Civil War, the Parliament succeeded mainly because
    a. Parliament had control of all of England's money.
    b. the noble classes supported them against the power of the king.
    c. Oliver Cromwell fought for Parliament and was the best general of the war.
    d. King Charles I was killed in battle and they were the only government left.

WH&G Unit 3 Test: Age of Revolutions

19. In 1453, the Ottoman empire began bombarding the city of _____ , the capital of the Byzantine Empire ; after two months of battle, the Byzantine emperor died and the Ottomans conquered the city.
    a. Kiev
    b. Constantinople
    c. Londinium
    d. Pisa

20. Promotion within Napoleon's government and military was based on which of the following?
    a. Bribery
    b. Birth
    c. Rank
    d. Ability

21. After the King locked them out of the meeting place, the Third Estate swore the _____, stating they would NOT leave until they had written a constitution for France.
    a. Versailles Oath
    b. None of the above
    c. Bastille Oath
    d. Tennis Court Oath

22. In the 13th century, _____ traveled from Venice with his father and uncle to the Chinese Court of the great Mongol ruler Kublai Khan ; his travel journals would inspire future Europeans to travel East.
    a. Ibn Battuta
    b. Zhang He
    c. Marco Polo
    d. Matteo Ricci

WH&G Unit 3 Test: Age of Revolutions

23. Study the political cartoon and select the best answer to describe the message the cartoonist is trying to relate to the reader.

a. People in France like to play strange games
b. The Third Estate is strong
c. The First and Second Estates need the help of the Third Estate
d. The Third Estate carries the burden of the country

24. Jean-Baptist Colbert, finance minister to Louis XIV, sought to increase France's wealth by decreasing imports, subsidizing key industries, and building up France's trade with its colonies. What economic philosophy did Colbert follow?
a. Monetarism
b. Mercantilism
c. Socialism
d. Keynesianism

WH&G Unit 3 Test: Age of Revolutions

25. The English Bill of Rights in 1689
    a. that England would eventually become a republic and have no king or queen.
    b. was granted by the king because he had lost his army in the Glorious Revolution.
    c. provided that the monarch could be a Roman Catholic if he or she converted.
    d. guaranteed that the monarch would always have to share power with Parliament.

26. In the showdown for who would be in control of France as the revolution started, a. the king kept the loyalty of the army, which put down revolts by firing into the mobs.
    b. the part of the government representing the people formed a National Assembly.
    c. the king tried to distract rebels by declaring another war against England.
    d. the Roman Catholic Church negotiated peace between the people and the king.

27. The precision of Galileo's astronomical observations greatly surpassed those of his predecessors, such as Copernicus and Kepler, because
    a. utilized calculus to verify his measurements.
    b. he was the first European to regularly use a telescope.
    c. invented an observation tool called the sextant.
    d. discovered how to use a refracting microscope.

28. Which of the following dominated the Congress of Vienna?
    a. Prince Klemens von Metternich
    b. Charles X
    c. Louis-Philippe
    d. Lord Nelson

29. A comprehensive system of laws that eliminated many injustices and gave France a uniform set of laws
    a. Great Fear
    b. Old Regime
    c. Napoleonic Code
    d. Declaration of the Rights of Man

30. The main point of the Magna Carta, signed by King John of England in 1215, was that a. the king of England would henceforth be a limited monarch, not an absolute one.
    b. in exchange for land, the nobles agreed to field armies if the king went to war.
    c. the king could not charge any new taxes to support the next war with France.
    d. the king granted a charter to each nobleman, making each one his vassal.

Name:_____ Class:_____ Date:_____

WH&G Unit 3 Test: Age of Revolutions

31. Base your answer to question the on the following picture and on your knowledge of world history.

The dotted line represents the boundary of the

a. Locations of dangerous reefs
b. The Continental System
c. Napoleonic Empire
d. The coast line of Europe

32. The Mongols, led by Genghis Khan,

a. conquered the islands of Java and Sumatra, which had repulsed several previous Chinese attacks.
b. defeated every army that challenged them, except for the Vietnamese.
c. brought much of the Eurasian landmass under a single rule, creating the largest land empire in history.
d. used tactics that were especially effective in tropical and hilly regions.

33. Part of the legacy of the French Revolution is that

a. it has inspired people to fight for their rights in other parts of the world.
b. all European monarchies became democracies.
c. citizen's rights were never again restricted in Europe.
d. it has discouraged revolutions worldwide for the last 200 years.

WH&G Unit 3 Test: Age of Revolutions

34. The main difference between the political thought of Thomas Hobbes and John Locke was that a. Hobbes believed God granted political wisdom whereas Locke was an atheist.
    b. Hobbes believed that people formed a social contract whereas Locke did not.
    c. Hobbes thought a republic was the best government whereas Locke favored absolute monarchy.
    d. Hobbes admired absolute rulers whereas Locke thought they abused natural rights.

35. Peter the Great's most important accomplishment as Czar of Russia was a. driving the Ottoman Empire's forces out of the Crimean Peninsula.
    b. compromising with the boyar class to establish a constitutional monarchy.
    c. establishing a communist government to replace the old monarchy.
    d. opening his country to Western European culture, politics, and trade.

36. Queen Elizabeth I in England had a foreign policy goal of
    a. fighting against absolutist rulers abroad
    b. supporting Spain or France, whichever was weaker at the time
    c. encouraging other countries to expand rights for women
    d. supporting any Catholic monarch in Europe

37. Which of the following did the Ming dynasty NOT accomplish?
    a. expelling Christian missionaries
    b. inventing gunpowder
    c. rebuilding the Great Wall
    d. establishing a nation-wide school system

38. The Ptolemaic solar system model, based on the work of a 2nd century Greek philosopher, is
    a. heliocentric.
    b. ethnocentric.
    c. geocentric.
    d. eccentric.

39. He set out to build a French “republic of virtue;” his rule became known as the Reign of Terror (1793-1794)
    a. Jacobin
    b. Klemens von Metternich
    c. Napoleon Bonaparte
    d. Maximilian Robespierre

40. Queen Elizabeth worked to keep her people happy by
    a. becoming Catholic.
    b. following moderate Protestantism.
    c. passing laws that favored Catholics.
    d. reverting to radical Protestantism.

Name:_____ Class:_____ Date:_____

WH&G Unit 3 Test: Age of Revolutions

Answer Key

1. d
2. b
3. d
4. d
5. d
6. d
7. c
8. d
9. a
10. a
11. b
12. d
13. b
14. b
15. a
16. d
17. c
18. c
19. b
20. d
21. d
22. c
23. d
24. b
25. d
26. b

Name:_____ Class:_____ Date:_____

WH&G Unit 3 Test: Age of Revolutions

27. b

28. a

29. c

30. a

31. b

32. c

33. a

34. d

35. d

36. b

37. b

38. c

39. d

40. b