Kylee Thompson

WORLD WAR I: A GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

Go to the following site and answer the questions as you go: https://goo.gl/ji3qsX

PART 1: ORIGINS (Click play)

1. Europe was described as "cosmopolitan" before the war. What does cosmopolitan mean?
   Cosmopolitan describes a place with a variety of groups of people that may share common values but have their differences as well.
2. Which countries were the 4 main powers at the start of the war?
   Britain, France, Austro-Hungary, Germany were the 4 main powers at the start of the war.
3. One of the main factors that set the stage for war to break out was the strong feeling of nationalism in Europe. What is nationalism?
   Nationalism is an extreme belief that one's country's ways should be the ways of all the nations. The pride they felt led them to assume their country was the best for everyone.
4. The most immediate cause of war was the assassination of what person on July 28, 1914?
   The assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand, the Austro-Hungarian heir, on July 28, 1914 was the most immediate cause of WWI.

In the top left corner of the screen, you'll see "The domino effect: How global war unfolded". Using the arrows directly next to this section, click through to see when countries joined the war. (notice – there is text that explains the 'domino effect' as each country joins the war)

5. What were the two reasons listed for why the United States joined the war?
   The German u-boat attacks on U.S. shipping and the intercepted Zimmerman Telegram were the two listed reasons for why the U.S. joined the war.
6. After Honduras joined the war, you can see the entire world map divided into the two sides: the Central Powers versus the Allied Forces. Which side had more countries?
   The Allied Forces had more countries than the Central Powers.

PART 2: TRENCHES (Click "Next chapter" at the top right of your screen)

7. What was the purpose of the trenches?
   The purpose of the trenches was to provide protection for the soldiers.
8. What rodent became a major nuisance in the trenches?
   Rats became a major nuisance in the trenches.
9. How many miles of trenches were there? There were 25,000 miles of trenches.

After "Trenches" finishes, you'll see a map of Europe with a reddish dot and a blue dot. Click on the reddish dot first to answer questions 10 and 11. Then click on the blue dot to answer question 12.

10. What disease did soldiers get by standing in the flooded parts of the trenches? How many soldiers were injured by this?

Soldiers got trench foot by standing in the flooded parts of the trenches. 75,000 British soldiers died due to trench foot.

11. How deep were trenches?

The Allied trenches were about 6-10 feet deep.
The German trenches were about 15 feet deep.

12. After reading about both the Allied and German trenches, which group had a better system of trenches? Why did they have better trenches?

The Germans had a better system of trenches because Germans chose slightly raised ground which didn't flood as easily as the low and shallow Allied trenches. The German trenches were deeper and wider and more efficiently connected.

PART 3: EMPIRES (Click "Next chapter" at the top right of your screen)

13. Why were places like India and Australia essentially forced into joining the war?

Once European powers declared war on each other, they had their colonial territories join them, even against their will.

14. How many non-white soldiers were included in the war?

About 4 million non-white soldiers were included in the war.

15. Which colony had the highest contribution to the armies?

India had the highest contribution to the armies.

16. Why did Indian politicians think their loyalty to Britain was so important?

Indian politicians thought their loyalty could be used later as a bargaining chip for greater political autonomy and independence.

After "Empires" finishes, you'll see a map of the world with "Empires at War: A global battle for territory" in the top right corner. Click through the different empires to answer #17

17. Which empire had territory on the most continents?

The British empire had territory on the most continents.

PART 4: FRONTS (Click "Next chapter" at the top right of your screen)

18. Why is this considered a global war? (What do they say about where the fighting is taking place?)

WWI is considered a global war because even though the fighting took place in Europe, there were fronts (nations involved) spread across the globe.

19. What were the 3 fronts that Germany would have to fight on?

Germany would have to fight on the French front (west), Russian front (east), and Italian front (south).

20. The Ottoman Empire controlled the Middle East at the time. What was the most important thing they controlled? Why was this so important?

The Ottoman Empire controlled access to the Black Sea through their Turkish straits. Russia relied on the Black Sea, so it was crucial that the Ottomans give them access in and out for trading and other purposes. However, the Ottomans and Russians fought on opposite sides.

21. Describe the kind of fighting at the Battle of Gallipoli.

The Allies fought the Ottoman-Turks on the Gallipoli peninsula. They shot bayonet charges from trenches that were about 20-25 meters across from the other. They also engaged in hand to hand combat.

22. Which side did the Italians fight on? Why did they fight on that side?

Italy fought with the Allied Powers because they offered the highest bid.

23. How did the Battle of the Alps end?

The Battle of the Alps ended with a gas attack from the Germans and Austro-Hungarians to defeat the Italians.

After "Fronts" finishes, you'll see a world map with yellow dots that indicate locations where the war was fought. Use this to answer #24-25

24. According to the Eastern Front dot, which front was more slow-paced and focused on the trenches? Which front was more mobile and did not rely on trenches?

The Western Front was more slow-paced and focused on the trenches.
The Eastern Front was more mobile and did not rely on trenches.

25. According to the Middle East dot, what capital city of the Ottoman Empire were the Allies trying to attack?

The Allies were trying to attack the Ottoman capital of Constantinople (now Istanbul).

PART 5: SLAUGHTER (Click "Next chapter" at the top right of your screen)

26. What were some of the new war technologies?

Gas warfare, heavier artillery, and machine guns were some of the new war technologies.

27. What were the outcomes of the Battle of Verdun?

More than 370,000 Germans died, and even more French died.
Meanwhile, no territorial advances were made.

After "Slaughter" finished, you'll see a world map with dots to describe the death and casualty numbers. Use this to answer #28-30

28. According to "The death toll" section in the top left corner, how many people died every day because of the war? An average of 6,046 people died every day because of the war.

29. How many German soldiers were killed?

Over 2 million German soldiers were killed.

30. How many Americans were killed?

Somewhere between 87,900 and 115,516 Americans were killed.

PART 6: ENDINGS (Click "Next chapter" at the top right of your screen)

31. The United States gave three things that helped turn the tide of the war in favor of the Allies. What were these three things?

The three things the U.S. gave that helped turn the war in favor of the Allies were financial aid, numerous destroyers to escort the convoys and eliminate unrestricted u-boat warfare, and a huge American army (several soldiers).

32. After the war, Germany faced paralyzing inflation. What is the economic definition of inflation?

Inflation is an increased in the price of goods and services which can reduce the value of money since less costs more.

33. What treaty ended the war on all fronts in 1919?

The Treaty of Versailles ended the war on all fronts in 1919.

34. What 3 continents saw changes to their maps as a result of the war?

Europe, Africa, and Asia saw changes to their maps as a result of the war.

35. The peace treaty placed sole blame for the war on Germany. This was the most devastating long-term result.

36. Why was the treaty so unfair to Germany?

The reparations asked of Germany were unreasonable because the bulk of the blame fell onto their country alone.

37. What happened to the Ottoman Empire?

Because their side (Central Powers) lost the war, the Ottoman Empire disappeared even though it wasn't addressed in the Treaty of Versailles.

38. What were the effects in India?

The Indians returned to India more confident, politicized, and aware of their rights which sparked decolonization.

After "Endings" finishes, you'll see a map of Europe with yellow dots. Put your cursor over the Ottoman Empire dot and read the description in the top left corner to answer question 39.

39. What was the primary country that was created out of the dissolved Ottoman Empire? (Hint: it's present-day capital is Istanbul)

Turkey was the primary country that was created out of the dissolved Ottoman Empire.

PART 7: AFTERMATH (Click "Next chapter" at the top right of your screen)

40. Describe the soldiers shown who survived and returned home.

The soldiers who survived and returned home had lost their innocence. They were severely affected by what they experienced. Some suffered from shell shock/PTSD.

- lost innocence
- faces messed up
- mourning
- minds affected

41. How many soldiers died because of the war?

Approximately 10 million soldiers died because of the war.

42. How many estimated civilians died because of the war?

An estimated 6-10 million civilians died because of the war.